

JA What Comes Next

Presenter Information

About JA What Comes Next

JA What Comes Next prepares 9th-12th grade students for life after graduation and answers their most pressing question, “What comes next?”

Current students at 4 and 2-year colleges, servicemembers, work apprentices and young people who immediately entered the workforce after high school will discuss their decisions and their transformation to life after graduation. (“Type” of presenter is based on availability.)

Volunteering at a Glance

LOCATION	TRAINING + PREP	GRADE LEVEL
At a high school	60 mins 1-2 wks pre-event	High school graduate
DURATION	TRAVEL	NUMBER OF VOLUNTEERS
1-6 hrs	Self-transportation	4-20 people

Volunteer Experience

Presenters will be given a worksheet with topics and question prompts to help them prepare to discuss each section of their post-secondary path, including self-reflection, research, and prioritization of their needs, wants, and values. During the event, a moderator will guide the volunteers and students through multiple 30-minute Q&A's.

Professional Development

Volunteering in this program develops professional skills:

- Public speaking
- Team collaboration
- Mentoring peers
- Time management
- Thinking on your feet

For More Information Contact:

Pete Crozier, pete.crozier@ja.org

JA What Comes Next is a program created by Junior Achievement of Central Ohio.